➤ Online Abstract Format

The format requires a structured abstract, which includes:

1. A concise description of the purpose of the research (20~40 words),
2. A brief introduction of your research design, methodology or approach (35~70 words),
3. A description of your (expected) research findings (35~70 words),
4. A short summary of the originality/contribution of your research paper (35~70 words), and
5. A list of literature references that are most pertinent to your research (2~5 references).

Conference Paper Format Guide

ATRS does not set any specific format for submitted papers. However, after the conference, if authors plan to publish their presented papers in a particular journal, please follow that journal's requirements.

Paper Awards

Two best paper awards will be granted, one for the outstanding paper presented at the ATRS conference and a second for the outstanding paper for which a student is the first author and presenter at the conference.

To be eligible for these awards, a complete paper must be submitted by May 1, 2019. For the student award, the lead author must be a registered student of an educational institution at the time of submission. To apply for the student award, please indicate in the FIRST LINE of your submitted paper that you wish the paper to be considered for this award.

The Paper Awards Committee is responsible for the winner selections. The first author/presenter of each of the winning papers will receive an award certificate and a cash prize of US $1,000.
